"Let me undress you..."

Lola knew she was in for a long night at her job when someone booked out her whole bar for a birthday party, but she had no idea that she'd be serving drinks to Bastien Lamont, one of sexiest, richest, most dominant men in the country. Bastien is everything she's ever hoped for—every last one of her darkest, sexiest fantasies—and here he is sitting at the bar flirting with her. She'd ask someone to pinch her, but if this is a dream, she wants it to last as long as possible!

Bastien is looking for more than just a few stiff drinks tonight, though—he's looking for her. He wants to claim Lola for himself—permanently—and even more, he wants to share her with everyone at his party. Will she be willing to cross that line with him? Can Lola trust him to keep his word and protect her, take care of her forever if she gives him the gift of a baby he's asking her for?
