Anthony's an eligible bachelor, and he's finally been convinced to put aside his womanizing ways to settle down. He needs a wife and children to share his wealth with, and his friend convinces him that an oriental woman named Feng Ling is the submissive woman he needs. When he sees her step off the train, he notices a few things straight away.

She's shy.

She's pretty.

She's definitely not Chinese.

Gianna is a headstrong young woman, and she's there for a reason. But she'll have to learn to be submissive if she plans on living under Anthony's roof, where even the slightest infraction can lead to her being bent over his lap.

She'll need to choose between what her head is telling her and what her heart is telling her when she's faced with a dilemma that threatens to change her life - and marriage - forever.

This is an explicit historical romance. This book contains multiple sex scenes involving domestic discipline, spanking, power plays, and an alpha male who takes what he wants.
