The book is a compilation of poems, educational lessons and silly notions meant to stimulate, educate and raise the self-esteem of children. Children need to be children, not adults. The book's lessons will help them to learn about necessary concepts in an enjoyable fashion, while also allowing them to tap into their imaginations and leave the real world behind for a few minutes, if just to giggle and to be children for a little while. Although the book will be good for children to read alone, it is also an ideal book for others to read to them, as it is a delightful read for all ages. The concepts within the book will inspire questions and conversation between children and their readers.
