Living on the Edge Wale Akinyemi

Nowadays so many of us seem to find one reason or the other for not following our passion. We come up with excuses like, "I do not have enough money to fund it", "I cannot find the help I require", "I do not think it is what i should do at the moment"... the list goes on and on. But is there really an excuse good enough to stop you from running with that God-given dream? Living on the Edge is more than just a book; it is a manual full of adventure, a handbook for anyone who truly wants to reach for the heights. As you take in each page you will be inspired, provoked and challenged to attain greatness. However, more importantly you will come to see that indeed all things are possible to him that believes in Him.
