In an effort to lose weight, people will try various things such as diets, exercise, pills and even surgeries. Although they may get their desired look on the outside, many have been unsuccessful with keeping it off because they didn't work on the pounds that they were carrying on the inside. This weight is often hidden, but sometimes come to the surface in the form of outside pounds. Losing weight is not just about counting calories. It is dealing with weights that may have caused you to gain in the first place. Even if you do not have an outward weight problem, the inward weights that you may be carrying are just as heavy and unhealthy on God's spiritual scale. Only He can give you the proper diet plan by feasting on His Word and helping you to discover the hard truth to help you to Drop Those Weights.
