Brit Holland finally comes to realize that his crush on his mother is wrong, even after he discovers she isn't his birth mother. Once he learns the circumstances of his birth and how she came to be his mother, he understands she is his true mother. Caitlyn sees the pictures of his mother on his cell phone and reacts so strongly, Brit is consumed by regret and cannot find the words to explain his actions. In the middle of a brief argument, he walks out of Caitlyn's condo.

After spending time with Kit Carson, he recognizes there's more to her than he first thought. They spend the day together and grow closer than he would have thought possible. Kit spends the night with Brit enjoying incredible lovemaking and closeness—then her mother calls.

After some good news for the family, they begin their return home from a truly memorable vacation.
