Prolog Quincy Taylor AKA Sincere spends two months in jail, as he connects with his mother and finds out he's a soldier in the game of life, while realizing that he is a product of the streets and currently running with a gang of older stick-up artist Sincere starts to question his existence as he discovers a gift for reading people he's spiritually connected with. Life becomes one big dance floor and in Come Dance With Me Sincere receives the answers to some of the questions he should know at this stage of his life, Family, friends, guns, robbing, killing and love. Sincere invites you to walk with him though these stages.
