This detail oriented eBook is a fantastic read for any person looking for fresh beaded handmade jewelry ideas. This particular ebook is special because it comes with guided video tutorials as well as written directions. A reader is able to follow along with both the text and the video to learn exactly what it takes to make your own jewelry.

Poli Ness walks the reader through splendid written directions on how to make earrings by utilizing her knowledge for crafting handmade pieces. Accompanying these directions with videos simplifies learning a new skill and creating a piece of jewelry that is both individual and beautiful.

Some people cannot learn just by reading; they must learn by watching. Thus, combining directions in the form of written words and video makes learning the skills within this book accessible to anyone. The combination of video tutorials and written directions will provide the reader with the ability to take their newly acquired jewelry making technique to the next level and create their own earring styles.

The author invites each reader to join her online magazine for free which gives them the ability to learn even more earring styles than are featured in the ebook itself.

There are many jewelry making books on the market that contain wonderful tutorials on how to make earrings, necklaces and bracelets. However when it comes to purchasing the necessary supplies a crafter must search countless shops to find the right beads. 'How To Make Earrings With Beads' not only gives wonderful directions but also takes away the daunting task of visiting multiple craft stores to find all of the beads and supplies that are needed.

This ebook creates a hassle free buying process as all supplies to create these gorgeous beaded earrings can be bought directly through the book. This allows the reader to purchase all craft supplies from one easy location, takes away any chore included in making your own jewelry, and lets the reader focus only on honing their craft.

The ability to buy all beading supplies through one retailer that is located within the book itself is an easy process and draws this ebook apart from other jewelry making manuals.

Poli Ness has created the perfect tutorial on making earrings from ornate beads, and each piece is simple to make. The earrings that can be made from the directions in this book use beads with a variety of textures, colors and sizes that will match any person's individual style. While it is necessary to make each pair of earrings with the specified materials, the reader is still able to choose which color beads they want to use so the earrings can be created to match any specific outfit.

Despite their crafting level, any reader will find these directions on how to make jewelry simple enough to learn and fun enough to try. One needs to no search further than this ebook for unique jewelry making ideas, and with the tutorials provided they will be able to recreate a look they admired on the street or the runway.
