After losing a leg in a high-speed car chase, Detective Sergeant Alex Brady returns to light duties. She is tasked with a mundane missing persons' enquiry. But her first case back on the job is anything but simple. The missing person is Susannah Reynolds, niece of Assistant Chief Constable Jack Dawlish. And when a body is discovered, Alex Brady finds herself embroiled in a murder investigation. When elderly landlady Edith Lovelace offers clairvoyant assistance, Alex isn't convinced. And with the attractive yet mysterious DCI John Rutland as her new boss, she's more than a little worried about how he'll react to Edith as a source of information. But a second disappearance is successfully predicted. This has to be more than just a coincidence? Where is Edith getting her information? Is she just using psychological tricks? Or is there more to it? Something doesn't add up. But who is telling the truth? What exactly happened to Susannah that night? And how do these seemingly random women connect to one another? 'My Soul to Keep' is a gripping contemporary crime novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. It is the first in a series featuring Detective Sergeant Alex Brady and the team. "A brilliant new detective series that will have crime readers hooked." - Tom Kasey, best-selling author of 'Trade Off'.
