This is an established textbook in the field of paralegal education dating back to the first edition in 1979. The intention of the textbook is to introduce paralegal students to the basics of property law, and estate administration. Additionally, the student will be schooled on construction of wills and trusts, including the laws that govern this activity. Many recent court decisions, including the Terry Schiavo right-to-die case, have been added, enforcing the need to make advance end-of-life medical decisions.
