Navigating the Department of Labor's Certification Requirements is an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for managing the PERM process as part of employment-based immigration. Featuring attorneys from firms around the nation, these experts guide the reader through the different phases of the labor certification process and the key considerations for each phase. These top lawyers reveal their advice on how to work with clients throughout the course of the process, including effectively managing timing and costs. From avoiding common mistakes to understanding recent regulatory developments, this book provides a comprehensive overview of how the labor certification process works today, providing the reader with advice on approaching each step of the process and working with the key players. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this rapidly-changing area of law.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book.

Chapters Include:

1. Deirdre Nero, Sole Practitioner, Nero Immigration Law PL Responding to the Ever-Changing Challenges of Employment-Based Immigration and the Labor Certification Process
2. Amy M. Landwehr, Shareholder, Davis Brown Law Firm The Labor Certification Process: A Step-by-Step Guide
3. Debra J.C. Dowd, Shareholder, LeClairRyan PC Overcoming the Key Challenges of the Labor Certification Process
