This is the sixth edition of the best-selling guide for federal contractors. It guides service and supply contractors through the process of developing a written Affirmative Action Program that will be compliant with federal regulations. This new edition also contains detailed information for construction contractors so they can complete their written 16-step AAP. This volume contains everything a contractor will require in the preparation effort except for U.S. Census data. And, it tells how to get that data from state data centers for only a small copying fee. Once you use this book, you will never again be without it.
