The Buffalo Kid: Everyone Deserves a Second Chance Réal Laplaine

They call him the Buffalo Kid - a 71 year-old homeless man who has scraped the streets of Buffalo New York and rubbed elbows with every other homeless person along its darkest corners and alleyways for the past 30 years. One cold and blustery day when his empty stomach is grumbling at him like a hungry tiger, the Kid bumps into a stranger and soon discovers that this man is not from our world and that his mission on Earth is to study us to see if our world has changed sufficiently to warrant an infusion of advanced technology. The Kid suddenly finds himself cast into the role of helping this strange visitor, a mission which will not only affect the future of the human race, but also forces the Kid to open up doors which he had long ago closed. A very human and touching story - reminding us that everyone deserves a second chance in life.
