This delightful book for children 9 and up shares "the world through a spy-glass" (as his first chapter is titled). From "a city built on a swamp" to the Iron Curtain Countries and all over the world, his words bring excitement and make all those reading including parents want to travel and learn more. Dedicated to a nine-year old who sums her joy of learning from this book: " I wish there were a hundred more countries in the world that you could tell us about.!"
