Writing with a creative flair! Creative Adventures in Writing utilizes a wide variety of assignments to teach four modes of writing: expository, persuasive, narrative and descriptive. Students write everything from scientific reports to campaign speeches, commercials, menus, travel brochures, ballads, and more. The left-brained student will be challenged to embrace creativity and imagination, while the right-brained student will learn to harness creative thoughts and translate them into organized, enjoyable writing. This fun, interactive course is a favorite with middle and high school students. You need this curriculum if. . . you value creativity. . . you're bored with typical writing assignments. . . you want a simple, easy-to-use program for teaching writing. . . you value tried and true teaching methods that have been used with great success in the home and in the classroom. . . you think writing should be fun!
