I have always lived my life the way that I have wanted to. I have loved who I wanted and when I wanted despite the outdated codes and rules of society. But when my beloved father unexpectedly dies, my world and the business I built with my father is thrown into sudden disarray.

As a stipulation in my father's last will and testament, in order to gain full control over my father's business—my business!—I must marry within the year.

As suitors begin to darken my doorway, an old friend from my past, Bryon, declares his love for me. But at the same time, I meet the charismatic and handsome Spaniard, Sergio. Both men are constantly at one another's throats, and they are demanding that I choose one of them, and if I cannot, they will fight to the death in order to prove their love for me.

But the real question is, do I even love either one of them ...
