Having to escape their beloved Puerto Rico, Saint and Fiona DesMoines possess something so dangerous, something so sinister, that they can only entrust one person with its secret, their daughter Jayne. Unaware that she holds the key to man's survival, Jayne attends school like any other normal college student. She and her best friend Shanna navigate the halls of academia, love, and lust in the heart of Georgia. Life is looking up for her when she meets a mysterious guy who shows up on her doorsteps. She trusts him with her life...but like some attractions, this one may be fatal. Nothing remains perfect for long. Things begin to suddenly spiral out of control as another stranger enters stage left. She brings with her secrets and an undeniable truth...things aren't always as they appear. Jayne finds herself fighting not only for her life, but for the ones of those she loves. In a runaway tale of love, devotion, deception, and betrayal, Jayne must find her way through hell and back if she ever wants to see the light of day again. As innocence is stripped away, and looks begin to kill...Jayne's temple is transformed into a body of lies...
