Neanderthal Cave Girl and other short stories edward wagner

No one is sure, and no one can say if Neanderthals, like many Native American Tribes, had or did not have females as leaders. I am sure that primitive peoples would have thought that women were special. They hold the future in their hands (so to speak) because only they give birth. Therefore I have stories of our far distant ancestors based on new facts and discoveries about the peoples we wrongly call “cavemen” or “Neanderthals,” with females as having important positions in the clan or tribe. I also have historical stories based on more modern happenings such as the Schenectady Massacre, Custer’s Last Stand, and many other stories that will excite, tease, torment and cause you to wonder.
