DEATH OF THE KING'S HORSEMEN (PT II) the missing pieces Jay Montague

In this part II novel, something brought a well wanted man out of hiding and back to the very grounds in which he is responsible for several murders. One thing is for sure, he'll stop at no lengths to address the matter at hand, and for certain it's not his crown. With his friends all dead, one man finds himself up against his worst enemy, someone that knows how he thinks, and possibly even be better at it than himself. Addressing one problem turns into problems he never saw coming. Law enforcement will go to extremes to try and stop their target. Outsmarted, out witted, and out sourced Jason searches for answers. The very tale that started out as a depiction of friendship takes a sudden turn into a tale of lies, pain, and deceit.... Just when you think you got it figured out, just turn the page....
