Straight to Gay

Chris is left by his long term fiancé which sets him off into a series of boozy nights, swear-filled rants and tantrums until he passes out on the sofa. Because of this he moves back in with his old time friend however there's a third person who took Chris's spot when he left, a young gay male who becomes increasingly attracted to the straight man. The two of them spend more and more time together, getting a little too close. Suddenly they find themselves in an odd situation, Chris decides if he's going to go gay, he's going to do it all the way.
