Have you ever wondered how some people become so successful in everything they do? The key to this is habits. By successfully building great habits into your life, you too could be successful.

Habits are a natural part of everyday lives. They have the ability to make our lives easier or become detrimental to our success. They are a learned behavior created from repetition. When we see individuals that display success in their lives, we tend to want to get to that level also. Habits can help us get there. This book focuses on the different habits of successful people. We will find the habits used in:

- The workplace
- Overall health
- The love-life
- Finances
- Staying Organized
- Time-management

By copying the habits of successful individuals, it will become easier to find our own road to success. We can also evaluate our current habits and find ways of losing a few bad habits that may have set us back.

Habits are a useful tool to build confidence, reliability, self-esteem, and a great reputation. We can find ourselves achieving goals without even noticing the steps we took to get there. Our habits become an ingrained extension of who we are. Our habits allow us to get to the places we need to go with less effort.
