“There is something else down here,” Gavin whispered, “something more powerful than I am, more powerful than all of us.” A year has passed since the battle in California against Victor, the Desert Plague. Since then, Victor has revealed his true nature, a good man with no intent to harm anyone. So what exactly had Infernal done to drive him mad? And will they do it again? Things begin to pile up on the Gemini when prisoner Simon Nikolas escapes, and a new theory about the virus begins to build. But it seems things are running deeper than could be imagined; there’s a betrayal on the inside. And now, with enemies on every side, Gavin, Roger, and Malcolm, with the help of SWAT member Bill Duncan, must find a way to stop Simon and Infernal, all the while avoiding the Monster that is shadowing their every move. If you can’t trust anyone in the world, then who is left to believe in? Can you even trust yourself?
