Filled with stories of "kingdom building," this book chronicles the work of octogenarian entrepreneur Rosser, who helped build almost 1,200 churches in 19 different countries. Told by Rosser himself in some chapters, and by veteran co-writer Vaughn (The Strand; Gideon's Torch) in others, it is a story that will indeed "stir up fresh possibilities of what [God] could well do right here at home." The very best sections of the book, however, come from the people they meet in dozens of other countries-Christians who tell of amazing faith in the face of extreme deprivation.
